

I like the present call regulations in effect in the state of Indiana at this time. I do not have my activities interrupted as often by telephone solicitations. Please pass no regulation or act that will weaken the provisions of the Indiana law.